

Writers' Workshop Publishing Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____ Writing Piece: _____

Pre-Write:

1.  Get your ideas down on paper. Think about who will read the writing, list words and discuss ideas with others.
Date: _____

Vomit Draft

2.  Get everything on paper. It may not sound good, but your ideas and foundational plan are there.
Date: _____
3.  Read over your vomit draft and make revisions (yourself). You should focus on ideas, voice, fluency, dialogue, and organization, When you have completed at least 3 revisions you may begin writing your first draft.
Date: _____

First Draft (You may want to type this draft up on the computer)

4.  Complete your first draft. Date: _____
5.  Read your first draft to a peer and fill out the "Writers' Workshop Conference Form"
Date: _____
6.  Revise (change or fix things that you may have noticed during your conference)
Date: _____
7.  Edit or proofread your draft. Check the following:
___ punctuation    ___ capital letters    ___ sentences    ___ paragraphs    ___ spelling
Date: _____

Second Draft

8.  Complete second draft. Date: _____
9.  Read over your second draft and make changes if necessary
Date: _____
10.  Conference with an adult (teacher, parent, relative) and fill out conference form
Date: _____
11.  Last revisions - Is there anything you could do to make this draft even better? Is it the best it can be for the final copy?
Date: _____

Final Draft

11.  Publish the final copy.
___ Design a cover    ___ About the Author Page    ___ Illustrationns    ___ Dedication